

team Spring Conference 2011 at Sandy Park this month

Estate agents from across the South West will flock to Exeter on 19th May for the team Association Spring Conference 2011.

Returning to the prestigious Sandy Park Conference Centre, home to Exeter Chief's Rugby Club, this year's annual conference promises to be both entertaining and informative with a suppliers' trade exhibition, a brand new compere and a confirmed line-up of special guest speakers including Dennis Turner, Chief Economist at HSBC.

Richard Rawlings, one of the biggest names in estate agency training and consultancy, will compere the event for the very first time and will also be holding a free seminar after the event.

Richard will present a number of industry speakers including Martin Suttie of team Conveyancing, Stephen Hayter of MyHomeMove and team's IT director Kerry Applin, who will be delivering and demonstrating some very exciting software developments.

Also taking to the podium will be special guest speakers, Adrian Webster and Dennis Turner. Adrian Webster is one of the most popular motivational business speakers in Europe today and is described as brilliantly motivating, hilariously funny, completely different and extremely effective. Dennis Turner is one of the UK's most highly regarded economists and has also made his mark as an International business speaker for his hugely entertaining style and diversity – outside of his day job, Dennis is a keen football fan and a Director of Fulham Football Club and is also a music critic with published works on the recordings of Van Morrison, Joe Coker and Ray Charles.

The supplier's trade exhibition will showcase some of the latest products and services on offer to the industry and delegates will enjoy catching up with old friends and meeting old colleagues. One lucky delegate will even take home a brand new iPad2 as the winner of the Prize Draw!

The conference – sponsored by The Digital Property Group (Primelocation and Find-a-Property), Resource Techniques, MyHomeMove and team Association - begins at 12pm with a buffet lunch and is absolutely free to attend.
