

team estate agents launch prize draw to win up to £5,000

Westcountry team, the South West network of independent estate agents, has launched a free Prize Draw for its member offices with one lucky homeowner in the region set to bag a grand total of up to £5,000.

Between 1st August and 31st October, all property owners who have a market valuation on their property from a participating team estate agent will be entered into the prize draw to win £1,000 cash.

And there is a £4,000 bonus for the winner – if, prior to the draw taking place, the winner has formally instructed the team agent to sell the property then they will be entitled to the bonus of £4,000 upon the subsequent exchange of contracts with a buyer introduced by that agent, bringing the total possible amount to be won up to £5,000.

With 63 Westcountry team estate agents across Cornwall, Devon and into West Dorset and Somerset from Penzance to Axminster and Wellington, there is an office locally placed to sell most homes in the region. During the three month period, team estate agents will take entry forms with them when they value properties. They will give the top half to the homeowner and send the bottom half, complete with the owners contact details, off to Westcountry team's head office to be entered into the draw. Participating agents will be easily identified with bunting, posters and leaflets in their offices as well as incorporating news of the Prize Draw into their advertising material.

The draw will take place on Thursday 1st December 2011 and is open to one entry per property, excluding rental valuations. The winning entry will be chosen at random.

Steve Moir, chairman of Westcountry team, said: "team estate agents are professional agencies, all well-established with years of local knowledge and experience and we're delighted to launch the Summer/ Autumn Prize Draw, which gives would-be sellers up to 5,000 more reasons to instruct their local team agent to sell their home, among a raft of other benefits including unrivalled marketing exposure and more online coverage than any other agent."
