

Press release – 1st June 2010

Tile Depot opens new store in Crawley

Tile Depot, the UK's largest independent tile and stone retailer with 14 stores in London and the South East, is delighted to announce the opening of a new store in Crawley next week.

The new Tile Depot store, with its distinctive green and yellow signage, joins Wickes, Bathstore and a number of other retailers on Denvale Retail Park, close to Crawley College and the County Mall Shopping Centre in Crawley town centre.

With the biggest range of tiles in the UK, Tile Depot provides a massive choice of wall and floor tiles in ceramic, porcelain and natural stone along with wooden flooring, underfloor heating, adhesives, grouts, trim and all tiling tools and accessories available to take away today.

Tile Depot's strap line 'We won't be beaten on price' is backed up by its Price Promise, which ensures the best value wall and floor tiles for kitchens, bathrooms and all over the home.

The retailer recently revealed plans to more than double its number of stores by the end of 2012, and Crawley is the first since the announcement. Modelled on Tile Depot's flagship Slough store, Crawley has improved lifestyle displays to help customers visualise how the tiles would look in their own homes and more customer-friendly layouts making it easier to shop.

To celebrate the opening, the new branch of Tile Depot will be running special opening offers throughout June and into July, including half price on a number of tile ranges plus adhesives and grout, and 10% off all solid wood, engineered and laminate flooring.

Tile Depot is open seven days a week - from 8am till 6pm on weekdays - and provides customer parking. The firm's helpful and knowledgeable staff and the Borrow a Tile service help customers make their selection and when the project is finished, Tile Depot offers a refund on unused tiles.

Tile Depot's Trade Card rewards trades people who register with exclusive special offers and discounts.
