

Stevens' kicks off second year in North Tawton with rugby sponsorship

Stevens', team Estate Agent in North Tawton, presented a new pair of post protectors to North Tawton Rugby Club last week.

Stevens', its original office well-established in Okehampton, opened its second branch in North Tawton in February 2008, and despite the fallen economy, has had a very successful 12 months in the town, having sold and let numerous properties for many satisfied clients.

Still fairly new to North Tawton though, Stevens' is eager to develop its relationship with the community, and presented the branded posts to the club not only to mark its first anniversary but to provide valuable support to the club, which is having its best run in the Tribute Devon 2 League for several seasons.

James Stevens' owner of Stevens' Estate Agents, made the presentation before the match on 21st February. He said: "We are really grateful to the people of North Tawton and the surrounding villages, who have supported us in our first year. We were very impressed by the facilities at North Tawton Rugby Club, catering for all age groups and also running a successful woman's team, and we are pleased to be able to provide support for a local organisation. The team made hard work of the first half on Saturday but pulled it back for a narrow winning margin of 17 – 16. It was a really exciting match."

Graham King, Chairman of North Tawton Rugby Club, said: "North Tawton Rugby Club thanks Stevens' for its generosity. These important pieces of safety equipment will benefit all the teams using the Taw Meadows pitch, including the North Tawton Ladies and the North Okes junior sides."

Providing comprehensive coverage in the local area for residential sales and lettings, Stevens' takes pride in its reputation, built on many years recommendation in Okehampton for delivering a personal and efficient service with care and dedication.
